

Technip Energies

FY'25 guidance 3% below consensus and updated medium-term outlook ahead of CMD

Our Take: This morning Technip Energies released a statement outlining its updated medium-term guidance ahead of its CMD today (followed online here). For FY'25, the midpoint group revenue guidance is €7.3bn (Cons €7.4bn, JPMe €7.8bn), EBITDA ~€640m (3% below Cons. €663m, JPMe €708m). In addition, the 2028 financial framework is for Projects Delivery revenue >€6bn, EBITDA margin ~8.5%; TPS revenue >€2.6bn, EBITDA margin ~14.5%; Corporate costs €60m. The group has a commercial pipeline of >€75bn, which management expects to underpin its new medium-term outlook. In addition, FCF conversion from EBITDA is expected to be 70-85%; 2024-2028 cumulative FCF of €2.2-2.6bn (JPMe €2.5bn). This its high cash generation and >€1 billion of available firepower is expected to support future dividend growth (Dividend payout 25-35% of FCF excl. WC and post leases) and allow the group to deploy capital selectively on value accretive M&A. While the outlook for FY'25 is slightly below consensus we expect a positive reaction to the solid medium term outlook, especially for TPS (and await more detail at the CMD).

- 2025 Guidance: Midpoint group revenues €7.3bn (Cons €7.4bn, JPMe €7.8bn), EBITDA €640m (Cons. €663m, JPMe €708m). Segment split: Projects Delivery revenue €5-5.4bn (JPMe €5.5bn), EBITDA margin 8% (JPMe 8.6%); TPS revenue €2-2.2bn (JPMe €2.3bn), EBITDA margin ~13.5% (12.1%); Corporate costs €50-60m (JPMe €45m).
- 2028 Framework: Projects Delivery revenue >€6bn, EBITDA margin ~8.5%; TPS revenue >€2.6bn, EBITDA margin ~14.5%; Corporate costs €60m.
- FCF outlook: FCF conversion from EBITDA expected 70-85%; 2024-2028 cumulative FCF of €2.2-2.6bn (JPMe €2.5bn).
- Capital allocation priorities: 1) Dividend payout 25-35% of FCF excl. WC and post leases; 2) Value accretive M&A in TPS (e.g. Reju)
- Commercial pipeline >€75bn through the end of 2026.

Summary Investment Thesis and Valuation

Investment Thesis

Technip Energies is an Engineering and Technology Company spun out of TechnipFMC in 2021. The company has significant market share in the engineering, procurement and construction (EPC) of large-scale LNG plants, downstream facilities and offshore installations. We see scope to grow its offering in Renewables and the Energy transition as it pivots with its customers to a low-carbon future, however we see short term headwinds given the increasingly tough backdrop for the roll out of renewables energy. We also see a temporary contraction in group margins as the group executes on its large backlog and early-stage milestones recognise a lower average margin. We rate the shares Neutral.

Valuation

Our Dec-25 price target is based on the average of our estimates for: 1) NPV, using 10.5% WACC and 1.0% TGR from 2029E; 2) our 2025E EV/EBITDA at 5.9x; and 3) our 2025E P/E at 10x. Our target multiples are dictated by factors such as the point in the cycle and the risk of earnings revisions and the growth outlook.

Valuation

Our Dec-25 price target is based on the average of our estimates for: 1) NPV, using 10.5% WACC and 1.0% TGR from 2029E; 2) our 2025E EV/EBITDA at 6.0x; and 3) our 2025E P/E at 10x. Our target multiples are dictated by factors such as the point in the cycle and the risk of earnings revisions and the growth outlook.

Risks to Rating and Price Target

- Order intake: If order intake assumptions miss our expectations, we may have to revise our forecasts lower.
- Execution risk: We do not take into account execution issues in our modelling. We assume that, on average, projects are delivered as planned. Variance from this can have an impact on financial results.
- Commodity cycle: While TE's portfolio is gas and downstream rather than oil, a downturn in the Oil & Gas industry can reduce investment level of TE customers.

Explanation of Equity Research Ratings, Designations and Analyst(s) Coverage Universe:

J.P. Morgan uses the following rating system: Overweight (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will outperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst’s, or the Research Analyst’s team’s, coverage universe); Neutral (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will perform in line with the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe); and Underweight (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will underperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe. NR is Not Rated. In this case, J.P. Morgan has removed the rating and, if applicable, the price target, for this stock because of either a lack of a sufficient fundamental basis or for legal, regulatory or policy reasons. The previous rating and, if applicable, the price target, no longer should be relied upon. An NR designation is not a recommendation or a rating. In our Asia (ex-Australia and ex-India) and U.K. small- and mid-cap Equity Research, each stock's expected total return is compared to the expected total return of a benchmark country market index, not to those Research Analysts' coverage universe. If it does not appear in the Important Disclosures section of this report, the certifying Research Analyst's coverage universe can be found on J.P.
